Dear IJACSA Editor,

I plan to submit my manuscript for April issue today, as I noticed that the submission due is April 1st, 2018. However, recently I read at thesai.org the information has changed. The next deadline will be on May 1, 2018.

If I submit a manuscript today, Is it welcomed to be reviewed for April issue or May Issue? If it is welcomed to be reviewed for April issue, what time is the submission due today? Is it referring to JST or GMT?

I look forward to your response. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
Hazriani.

Dear Editor,

We are so sorry to "again" send a request regarding the paper: "Object-Oriented Context Description for Movie Based Context-Aware Language Learning".

Recently we found in the title, second affiliation of the first author does not annotate to the first author's name. Therefore, we will send the revised version (as attached).

Again we are so sorry for the inconvenience.
Best Regards,
Hazriani
